

If you are trying to stop the traffic and weather, please know that I don't drive rush hour so I don't get any of the typical local traffic reports from detour dan... I have had trouble navigating the Phoenix streets for the last couple of years because of construction. The city and state have not provided good signage. I have used the local traffic and weather a few times and found it helpful when I didn't have any other choice or traffic reporting.